Our Complaints Policy

We are committed to providing a high quality legal service to all our clients. When something goes wrong we need you to tell us about it. This will help us improve our standards.

Our Complaints Procedure

If you have a complaint, contact us with the details.

What will happen next?

1. We will send you a letter acknowledging your complaint within three days of receiving your complaint, enclosing a copy of this procedure.
2. We will then investigate your complaint. This will normally involve passing your complaint to our client care director Miss Sara Llewellyn Jones who has ultimate responsibility for complaints handling and will review your matter file and speak to the member of staff that acted for you.
3. Miss Sara Llewellyn Jones will then invite you to a meeting to discuss and hopefully resolve your complaint. She will do this within fourteen days of sending you the acknowledgement letter.
4. Within three days of the meeting Miss Sara Llewellyn Jones will write to you to confirm what took place and any solutions she has agreed with you.
5. If you do not want a meeting or it is not possible, Miss Sara Llewellyn Jones will send you a detailed written reply to your complaint, including her suggestions for resolving the matter, within 21 days of sending you the acknowledgement letter.
6. At this stage, if you are still not satisfied, you should contact us again and we will arrange for another director, or someone unconnected with the matter at the firm to review the decision.
7. We will write to you within fourteen days of receiving your request for a review, confirming our final position on your complaint explaining our reasons.
8. If you are still not satisfied, you can then contact the Legal Ombudsman at PO Box 6806 Wolverhampton WV1 9WJ about your complaint. Any complaint to the Ombudsman must usually be made within the following time scales. Subject to the Legal Ombudsman's discretion to extend the time limits, you will need to bring your complaint to the Legal Ombudsman
 - a) within six months of receiving a final written response from us about your complaint and,
 - b) no later than 6 years from when the problem (act or omission) occurred or,
 - c) no later than 3 years from the date, you should reasonably have known that there was cause for complaint.

But for further information, you should contact the Legal Ombudsman on 0300 555 0333 or refer to enquiries@legalombudsman.org.uk.

If we have to change any of the timescales above, we will let you know and explain why.
